pursuant to the complaints given by the petitioner is illegal, arbitrary and violative of Articles 19 and 21 of the Constitution of India and consequently, direct the respondents 5 to 7 to provide police protection to the petition and take action against the culprits who are respondent Nos.1 to 4 herein and their men that they are trying to kill the petitioner at any time.

Counsel for the Respondent Nos.5 to 7: GP FOR HOME

The Court at the admission stage made the following Order:

THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE L.NARASIMHA REDDY

WRIT PETITION NO. 18481 of 2004

ORDER:

The petitioner claims to have submitted a complaint before respondents 5 to 7, three different police stations, alleging that respondents 1 to 4 have threatened him with dire consequences and with life, in case, he persists on demand for payment of the consideration for the material supplied by him. The petitioner alleges that no action had been taken by the respondents.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has urged several contentions touching on the merits of the matter. He, ultimately, states that the petitioner is interested in pursuing the complaint submitted by him before the respondent No.6

Learned Government Pleader for Home, on the other hand, submits that the dispute between the petitioner and the respondents 1 to 4, is purely civil in nature and the complaint is vague and unspecific.

Though the petitioner had made complaints before three police stations, he confines the relief as regards respondent No.6, viz., P.S. L.B.Nagar. The petitioner made a reference to the existing civil dispute between himself and the respondents 1 to 4. Neither respondent No.6 nor this Court can deal with the same. Suffice it to say that when the petitioner apprehended threat from respondents 1 to 4, respondent No.6 is expected to accord necessary protection.

Hence, the writ petition is disposed of directing that as and when the petitioner faces any specific acts of threat, it shall be open to him to report to respondent No.6, and in such an event, the latter shall take appropriate action in accordance with law. There shall be no order as to costs.
